

Heartsick

heart failure – diagnosis & management, cardiac surgery – open/percutaneous options, lipids – what's new?

It's easy to register

southernhighlandsprivate.com.au

Park Proxi
7 Boronia Street, Bowral NSW and livestreamed via Zoom

Saturday 29 March 2025
RSVP Friday 21 March 2025

IngramK@ramsayhealth.com.au
0418 114 314

PROGRAM

12.30pm Registration and lunch

1.00pm Presentations and discussion

Cardiac surgery role in the era of percutaneous options – what's new in the future?

Prof Paul Bannon, Cardiothoracic Surgeon

Percutaneous intervention – now and moving forward panel discussion

Dr Jordan Fulcher, Cardiologist

Heart failure and factor management – diagnosis and treatment, mechanical support and beyond

Assoc Prof Sean Lal, Cardiologist

Heart failure pharmacotherapy what's new – optimisation of the "4pillars"

Assoc Prof Michele McGrady

Lipids – what's changed? Lp(a), OxPL-ApoB, and more

Prof John O'Sullivan, Cardiologist

3.30pm Evaluation and close

Dr William Quinn, Chair

Prof Paul Bannon

Prof Ian Wilcox

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Describe how to diagnose and treat heart failure/when to refer
- Identify pros/cons of open v percutaneous cardiac surgery
- Outline current percutaneous cardiac interventions: indications, benefits, risks
- Identify recent changes to lipid managements

Proudly sponsored by

Scan to register

Hours: 3

Email if you wish to be removed from our mailing list