

Women in distress

practical care across pregnancy, postnatal health and common gynaecological concerns

It's easy to register

www.stgeorgeprivate.com.au

Tuesday 25 August, 2026

RSVP Friday 21 August

St George Private Hospital,
Level 1, Cafeteria Room,
1 South St, Kogarah NSW 2117

pottss@ramsayhealth.com.au
0448 458 766

PROGRAM

- 6.30pm Registration and dinner
- 7.00pm Presentations and discussion with Obstetricians & Gynaecologists
- Hyperemesis gravidarum
Dr Supriya Kanitkar
- Help, I'm unwell and I have a toddler:
Infections in pregnancy
Dr Emma Chesterman
- Pregnancy – the aftermath
Assoc Professor Greg Davis
- Is period pain normal?
Dr Monique Damasco
- 9.00pm Evaluation and close

CPD hours 2

Email if you wish to be removed from our mailing list

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Manage hyperemesis gravidarum and escalate when required
- Recognise and investigate common maternal infections
- Identify early postpartum complications and mental health concerns
- Differentiate primary vs secondary dysmenorrhoea

Proudly sponsored by

Scan to register

