

Bump and beyond...

An O&G speed update on PMOS, endometriosis, preconception, infections in pregnancy and more

It's easy to register

www.pindaraprivate.com.au

The Langham Gold Coast (Clarity Room)
38 Old Burleigh Road
Surfers Paradise QLD 4217

Wednesday 4th November

RSVP by Wednesday 28th October

Desiree Gaze

gazed@ramsayhealth.com.au

0455 847 475

PROGRAM

6:00pm Registration and dinner

6:30pm Round table, case-based discussions covering:

Polyendocrine metabolic ovarian syndrome (PMOS)

Dr Chris Arthur, Obstetrician and Gynaecologist

Introduction to surgical and non-surgical management of endometriosis patients with chronic pain

Dr Sean Holland, Obstetrician and Gynaecologist

Infections in pregnancy

Dr Catherine Mills, Obstetrician and Gynaecologist

Preconception: the consultation that can change pregnancy

Dr Yasmin Pilgrim, Obstetrician and Gynaecologist

8:30pm Evaluation and close

Hours: 2 RP Hours

Email if you wish to be removed from our mailing list

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Identify reproductive and metabolic risk factors and implement appropriate investigations and individualised management strategies
- Apply evidence-based approaches to chronic pelvic pain management and recognise when surgical intervention or specialist referral is indicated.
- Identify and address modifiable risk factors through evidence-based preconception counselling to optimise pregnancy outcomes
- Recognise common infections in pregnancy, initiate appropriate investigations and evidence-based management

Proudly sponsored by

Scan to register

Ramsay
Health Care