GP Continuing Professional Development

Inside Out!

Endovascular management of pelvic pathologies

It's easy to register
www.dudleyprivate.com.au

Rydges Mount Panaroma
1 Conrad Straight, Mount Panaroma Bathurst

Thursday 18th February 2027
RSVP Thursday 11th February 2027

Melanie Hughes-Clapp
hughesclappm@ramsayhealth.com.au
0417 175 404

PROGRAM

6.15pm Registration and dinner

6.30pm Presentations and discussions

Male and Female pelvic endovascular therapies – Dr James Hillhouse, Radiology – interventional

Recognising pelvic venous disorders in Women: History and examination tips – Sarah Thorncraft, CNC EndoPelvic Clinic

Physiotherapy management and interdisciplinary care in chronic pelvic pain – Elizabeth Lush, Physiotherapist – pelvic pain

8.30pm Evaluation and close

Hours: 2 Hours

RACGP CPD
Content developed by an RACGP Major Provider
Self record via Quick Log

Proudly sponsored by:
Boston Scientific
Advancing science for life™

Email if you wish to be removed from our mailing list

LEARNING OUTCOMES

- Recognise pelvic and venous disorders and other contributors to chronic pelvic pain
- Describe how to assess pelvic pain in women – history/ examination/ investigations
- Outline the role of interdisciplinary care in the management of chronic pelvic pain

Scan to register

Ramsay Health Care